PART 1: ORDER(S) SOUGHT

- 1. The trial scheduled for March 31 April 4, 2025 is adjourned.
- 2. Costs of this application.

PART 2: FACTUAL BASIS

- 1. This is the first application for an adjournment of the trial.
- 2. The Notice of Civil Claim was initially filed as a wrongful dismissal claim.
- 3. The Plaintiff filed an Amended Notice of Civil Claim in May 2024. The Amended pleadings seek various damages for intention of infliction of mental suffering arising out of an affair involving the Plaintiff's spouse and the Plaintiff's boss.
- 4. On June 21, 2024 the Defendant notified Plaintiff's counsel if its intention to seek a summary trial on two issues:
  - Does a valid Contract of Employment containing a severance provision exist:
  - ii. Do the pleadings relating to the affair support a cause of action?
- The Defendant proceeded to seek dates for summary trial and coordinated availability with Plaintiff's office each month beginning with the July trial booking opening.
- 6. On July 29, 2024, Plaintiff's counsel requested availability for a trial including dates in March, July or October.
- 7. The Defendant's counsel indicated availability in July or October but objected to dates in March on the basis that the parties were unlikely to be ready to proceed due to documents production issues. The Plaintiff indicated on August 1, 2024 that it would proceed to seek a trial commencing March 31, 2025.
- On September 5, 2024. Plaintiff's counsel served a Notice of Trial for March 31 April 4, 2025.
- 9. The Defendant tried each month to secure a summary trial but was not successful until November 2024.

- 10. The summary trial was scheduled for January 30 and 31, 2025. A judge was not available and the summary trial did not proceed.
- 11. Trial scheduling has offered February 11 and 12, 2025 summary trial dates but has not assured the parties of a judge's availability.
- 12. The Defendant produced its list of documents on April 5, 2024, within 35 days, as specified in the Rules. The Plaintiff did not produce its first list of documents until September 25, 2024.
- 13. There were numerous demands by the Plaintiff for the Defendant's documents prior to the Plaintiff having produced its own list of documents. There were numerous written requests by the Defendant for the Plaintiff's list of documents.
- 14. The Plaintiff's list of documents produced September 25, 2024 contained no medical records. The Plaintiff expressed numerous claims of mental suffering in the Amended Notice of Civil Claim.
- 15. The Plaintiff's September 25, 2024 list did not contain any reference to a known surreptitious recording taken by the Plaintiff of a meeting with his boss just prior to the Plaintiff's termination.
- 16 Certain surreptitious recordings were listed and made available November 12, 2024.
- 17. The Plaintiff requested clinical records from a Clinical Psychologist, beginning October 10, 2024 but did not obtain a production order until December 3, 2024, the production order was uncontested. The clinical notes were listed on January 7, 2025.
- 18. The Plaintiff served an expert psychiatric report on January 3, 2025.
- 19. As of the day of this application, discoveries have not been undertaken.

PART 3: LEGAL BASIS

 An application for the adjournment of a trial should be granted where it is in the interest of securing a fair trial.
